SALON TALENTS 2025

For its fifth edition, the fair "Talents, la broderie d'art nous fait rêver", comes back to amaze you, on 22 and 23 of March, 2025.

Thread passionates, artists, and curious, will be welcomed to enjoy an exceptional edition, doubling on virtuosity, and celebrating the event's 10th anniversary.

A passion's story

Organised by the Brode-Art Association, this even is unique in France. The fair is entirely dedicated to the art of embroidery. Oftentimes considered only for its traditional techniques, art embroidery is, in fact, a really vast and fertile domain, where creativity and excellence goes hand in hand.

"Talents" puts the light on the Haute-couture embroidery, as well as textil art and design, thanks to the participation of forty local artists alongside national and international ones.

With the intent of emphasizing accessibility, the salon is open to everyone, children, adults, embroiderer from all levels, curious and Arts enjoyer.

Rich from the creativity of the exhibited artists, and of this openness towards the public, the salon welcomes, each editions, a larger amount of participants, and inspire children and grown ups.

Exhibiting a large range of techniques and crafts, going from traditionnal creations, to more contemporary ones, "Talents" creates an atmosphere of emulation, sharingness and transmission.

SALON TALENTS 2025

Unrivaled creators

The two guests of honor are, Julie Barbeau, winner of the "Les mains d'Or" price, organised by the CMA Pays de la Loire.

And Etsuko Narita, a japanese artist, who did receive the final price and the encouragement price TOHO BEADS in the international competition BEADS BIENNALE organised at Hiroshima in 2015.

The Salon highlights professional embroiderer, competitions laureates, and Meilleurs Ouvriers de France, coming to share their savoir-faire, but also, and foremost, their passion for this craftwork.

Desirous to perpetuate the transmission of Art Embroidery, "Talents" will welcome the Paul Lapie highschool, a professional formation center of Art embroidery in the Grand Est area.

Various professors and students will attend the salon, to present you some student's work, the different courses, but also to host workshops.

This will be the occasion to exchange with professionals, and to meet new opportunities for students, or aspiring ones.

Thanks to the demonstration offered by the exhibitors, and the various techniques shown, the artistic gestures will rivalise in terms of originality and virtuosity.

From a traditional approach, to a contemporary one, gold or white embroidery, japanese or with a Lunéville hook, it's a trip between pearls and threads that this salon offers.
